1 Court convened on Friday,
2 April 4, 2008 at 2:37:40 p.m.

3 THE COURT: Do you have any cats or anything you
4 want to show me?

5 MR. REDFORD: No, we're -- we're -- we're fresh out
6 of children and -- and my cat pictures are at home, so --

7 THE COURT: All right. Okay, so how many do you
8 have, counsel?

9 MR. REDFORD: Ten.

10 THE COURT: Okay.

11 MALE VOICE: I'm glad I'm in front of him.

12 THE COURT: Counsel Kessler, what --

13 MALE VOICE: This -- this is agreed to by 14 (unintelligible). She's -- she's already had this called in 15 ahead.

16 THE COURT: She was well aware?

17 MALE VOICE: She was well aware.

18 THE COURT: Okay, 'cause you always -- counsel
19 Kessler, you always want to make sure that confirmations clerk
20 is on board.

21 MALE VOICE: Okay.

22 THE COURT: Because things can go south really fast
23 if we don't all coordinate with her. Thanks for checking.
24 Have a good weekend.

25 MALE VOICE: Thank you, your Honor.

THE COURT: There's two attorneys practicing and he's one of them that I've known since -- they're friends of my son's.

MR. REDFORD: Yeah, I had an attorney call me today I hadn't talked to in months. And I ran into her the other day in court and then called me today on one of my cases and I'm thinking -- she was saying, you know, we need to get together. And I'm thinking, how long have I known you? Since you were 15. She used to be the receptionist at -- at Snohomish County PUD -- or Snohomish County Public Defender --

THE COURT: Oh, wow.

MR. REDFORD: -- when Debbie worked there.

THE COURT: Oh, wow.

MR. REDFORD: So -- and she put herself through law school and now she's a pro tem in -- in South District Court.

THE COURT: Wow.

MR. REDFORD: Yeah.

THE COURT: A friend of mine from former Public Defender's office in King County --

Hearing adjourned on Friday,
April 4, 2008 at 2:39:51 p.m.
